Dear Animal friends

November 2017

With a heavy heart we had to inform you last month that Brigittes' husband Werner had passed away and she had to go back to Germany. She is still there and is hoping to be back at the end of this year. Things have been hard on all of us and since we are such a small team we are happy that at least our wonderful volunteer Sven has returned to the island and is staying every day at our office in Chaweng – taking a big stone off Jay's shoulder too since she has been left alone with the office work in the past few weeks. Thankfully our manager Wit is still going absolutely strong every single day, our long term volunteers Linda and Tom are also back in full force and our helpers and especially Dr. Sith are giving their best to keep things going as good as possible. A big THANK YOU also to all our volunteers! If for a day, one week or for months, your help is greatly appreciated. However, it is a fact that we DEPEND ON YOUR HELP too! Not only with any kind of donations for our dogs and cats but also on your help when it comes to rescuing animals in need of help.

So often we get phone calls from animal friends, reporting an injured dog or cat SOMEWHERE but do not stay with the animal. We often simply don't have the manpower to go and search endlessly for reported animals. Like in the case of the dog in the picture- we are so very grateful if people help us to find the animal. A lovely Thai lady heard that we were searching for a terribly sick dog in the area near our shelter in Baan Taling Ngam. Only thanks to her staying with the dog we finally managed to catch her and will give our very best to have her back on her feet. She is now at our shelter and is getting the necessary care.....

Thank you very much for all your help! We hope we can count on your continued support so that we can make even more progress in the future. We believe our efforts to make Koh Samui more animal-friendly have made it a happier and safer place for tourists, for which the tourists are grateful. Our four-legged friends are most grateful for your contribution!
