Dear Animal friends

October 2018

With the rainy season kicking in, everything always gets just a little bit harder to manage. People and animals often struggle alike and the normally sunny island of Koh Samui can turn into a pretty hard place to handle. Every day our Dog and Cat Rescue Team faces multiple cases of injured and sick animals in desperate need of help and shelter. Especially during the monsoon season we are trying our best to provide exactly that in order to make every rescued animal just a little more safe and comfortable. Having a clean and dry place to lie on and recover is very important. We are in desperate need of help from hotels and private people on Koh Samui:

PLEASE HELP US HELP!

ANYONE who can spare a couple of old towels or bed sheets, please drop them off at our office in Chaweng or our main shelter in Ban Taling Ngam – or contact us and we pick it up.

TO ALL THE HOTELS on Koh Samui, Please think of us when it comes to changing over old bed sheets or towels as well as possible old curtains we could use to provide our dogs and cats with a warm place to lie on.

Thank you very much for all your help! We hope we can count on your continued support so that we can make even more progress in the future. We believe our efforts to make Koh Samui more animal-friendly have made it a happier and safer place for tourists, for which the tourists are grateful. Our four-legged friends are most grateful for your contribution!
