Dear Animal Lovers

August 2015

GREAT NEWS! Finally we made it and finished the new monkey cage for LingLing. It's been a much longer process than expected. Thankfully we managed to get the donation for the cage quite quickly and were hoping to get started with the building straight away. We had already bought the material but there was nobody who could weld the cage. When we finally employed a new helper who could weld, he had an accident soon after he got started and so the whole thing was delayed again. Here you can find some more pictures from LingLing and how we build his new cage:

If you want to pay LingLing a visit and check out his fancy new home, you can find him on top of Lamai Hill, coming from Chaweng, just 20 Meters before the 'Sky Gym'.

Best wishes and thank you for your support
