Dear Animal Lovers on Koh Samui,

May 2013

While our heads of the Dog and Cat Rescue Center Brigitte and Werner spend a couple of weeks in Germany, we've been giving our best to make sure that the DRCSF runs smoothly and everyone is doing their job, so that the dogs and cats on the island get help if needed.

Everyone involved in the Rescue Center knows, that there is no such thing as a quiet and boring day. Beside our vet Khun Taungsit and our team of Thai helpers, we are lucky enough to have some short and long-term volunteers. Everyone helps at different ends and thanks to them, many dogs and cats feel hope again and maybe try to fight their sickness just a little bit harder.

As always doing a great job: Our manager Khun Wit. Thank you Wit for keeping everything together the way you do!! Wit makes sure everyone knows what has to be done and most calls go via him. He's been with us for over 10 years and is for sure one of the most important character of the whole organisation. We hope he will continue his work with us for many more years to come!

Huge THANK-YOU to all our volunteers, giving their best to change many animals' life for the better!

Being part of the DRCSF for many years already, Jay, Linda and Tom are busy treating animals on the road, dealing with puppy and mother cases and working at the temples around the island. Twice a week, Jay is giving her best, working off the necessary office work.

Martina is holding the position at the house in Chaweng, doing a great job caring mainly for the cats and has been successfully finding new homes abroad for Samui dogs and cats.

Operation list April 2013

Dog (Female)	Dog (Male)	Cat (Female)	Cat (Male)	Other	Total

Thank you very much for all your help. We hope we can count on your continued support so that we can make even more progress in the future. We believe our efforts to make Koh Samui more animal-friendly have made it a happier and safer place for tourists, for which the tourists are grateful. Our four-legged friends are most grateful for your contribution!

Best wishes
The DRCSF-Team
