Dear Animal Friends On Koh Samui

October 2012

This is Lilo. Lilo was rushed to our shelter after he was shot in the head (he probably got too close to a chicken). The first couple of weeks he was in a critical state but thankfully recovered well in the end. He put on some weight too and the eye could be saved. Looking good Lilo!

A very special THANK YOU to DJ Blair who has given another great stage performance at Chaweng walking street market on the 27th October. Unfortunately we didn't collect a lot of donations due to the low season and the fact that it was very difficult for people to reach the donation box which was placed in front of the stage, meaning people had to walk through all the made up tables and chairs first.

Thank you very much for all your help. We hope we can count on your continued support so that we can make even more progress in the future. We believe our efforts to make Koh Samui more animal-friendly have made it a happier and safer place for tourists, for which the tourists are grateful. Our four- legged friends are most grateful for your contribution!

Best wishes
