Dear Animal Lovers on Koh Samui,

October 2013

The rainy season has started and as every year, we are already struggling to keep our four legged patience warm. Especially the little puppies, kittens and of course the dogs that were just operated need to stay warm and dry. Blankets can be lifesaving! Due to the daily rains, we have problems to get the dirty laundry washed and dried and are soon running out of blankets.

PLEASE HELP US TO KEEP THE ANIMALS DRY AND WARM

and donate old towels, blankets or bed sheets. Please get in touch with us via phone, email or simply come and visit.
THANK YOU!

Regarding the two missing dogs from the Boat House from the Choeng Mon Beach, we have no good news: Max is still missing and Maxime run away from our house in Chaweng and has not been found since.

Please check again if you see
 MAX and MAXIME

The good news is that if we do manage to find those two dogs, the manager of the Boat House Doeke Bonga has now agreed to let the dogs stay on the beach there and not harm them again.

Thank you very much for all your help. We hope we can count on your continued support so that we can make even more progress in the future. We believe our efforts to make Koh Samui more animal-friendly have made it a happier and safer place for tourists, for which the tourists are grateful. Our four-legged friends are most grateful for your contribution!

Best wishes
